Menachem Rosensaft To Speak At Yom Ha-Shoah Service Thursday, April 7

Menachem Z. Rosensaft, founding chairman of the International Network of Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors, will be the speaker at a congregational service on Yom Ha-Shoah.

Holocaust Remembrance Day, which will be held on Thursday evening, April 7th at 7:30 P.M. in the Main Sanctuary.

Rosensaft, who was born in the Displaced Persons Camp of Bergen-Belsen in 1948, has lectured and written widely about the Holocaust, and is chairman of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies at Park Avenue Synagogue.

This year, the Holocaust will be commemorated at an expanded Minha-Maariv service specially created by Rabbi David H. Lincoln, which will be led by Rabbi Lincoln, Cantor David Lefkowitz, Assistant Rabbi Elana Zaiman, and Assistant Cantor Judith Naimark.

The remembrance of the victims of the Holocaust is an integral element of contemporary Jewish religious and national identity. For we must remember not only how six million Jews died, but how they lived. As Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg has written, "The survivors did not dwell on death; they rebuilt life. This was the lesson they were teaching: a people must remember but it cannot live on by making a cult of its woes. The faith of the Jews is not simply remembering the Holocaust; it is the Jewish religion, which—before and after the Nazis—reasserts the verse in Psalms [118:17], 'I will not die, for I will live.' Those who remained after the Holocaust, and their children and grandchildren, must live all the harder, and all the more decently, to carry on for every one of the unfinished lives."

18th (Chai) Shabbat Music Service March 19

On Saturday morning, March 19th, the Main Sanctuary of the Park Avenue Synagogue will be filled with the glorious music of our annual Classical Shabbat Morning Liturgical Music Service, marking the 18th successive year of this annual special event. Eighteen in Hebrew spells chai, which means life. Indeed, through the venue of our Classical Music Service, we have resurrected and truly brought back to life the music of Jewish worship from generations of European Jewry that had been silenced and forgotten.

The concept to revive and revitalize the beautiful music from the large European synagogues of the 19th and early 20th centuries was inaugurated by Cantor David Lefkowitz in March of 1977. Impressed by the great accomplishments of our congregation's Annual Contemporary Friday Evening Liturgical Music Service formed by his predecessor, Cantor David J. Putterman in 1943 (we just celebrated the 50th anniversary of that occasion at our gala concert a few months ago), Cantor Lefkowitz felt we needed to bring the warm sounds and spirit of a forgotten European Jewish musical heritage to our congregants as well. With the encouragement of Rabbi Judah Nadich, the enthusiastic support of Mr. George M. Shapiro, the musical expertise of Mr. Abraham Kaplan, and the added collaboration of Rabbi David H. Lincoln, this experiment has flourished. An enormous quantity of crumbling manuscripts and old publications have been edited, adapted, or rearranged during these eighteen years that otherwise would never have been heard. This music and the spirit it evokes now live at Park Avenue Synagogue and in numerous synagogues around the globe.

Not only old music has been sung at these services. Important new music has been composed in the style and traditions of the classical, yet representing the creative interpretation of today's moods and aspirations. The service on March 19th will premiere new music for several important prayers of the liturgy composed by Cantor Jerome B. Kopmar. Music by Cantor Kopmar is sung often in our synagogue and has been very warmly received by congregants. We, therefore, look forward to hearing his new works, together with other restored material that will be sung for the first time that morning.

Cantor Lefkowitz, who brings out special nuances of his voice for this annual occasion, will be joined by the majesty of the 18-voice Synagogue Concert Choir, led by the inspiring conducting of Abraham Kaplan, and complemented by the organ mastery of Neil Robinson.

This wonderful occasion is made possible by funds provided by Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shapiro in memory of Sarah and Samuel Shapiro. Congregants are invited to bring friends to shul that morning to experience the beauty and spirit of a musical Shabbas davening. A gala kiddush and reception for the artists will follow this special Shabbat morning service.

In 1951, the Knesset, Israel's parliament, formally designated the 27th day of the month of Nisan as Yom Ha-Shoah. In order to ensure the continued commemoration of this cataclysmic event in Jewish and world history, it is essential that this national day of mourning and remembrance be integrated into the Jewish religious calendar on a permanent basis. The entire congregation is, therefore, urged to attend and participate.

New Instrument In Memory Of Nathan B. Kogan

Park Avenue Synagogue has received a wonderful gift to honor the memory of one of our congregation's beloved leaders. The family of the late Nathan B. Kogan has presented us with a state-of-the-art musical instrument that combines contemporary electronic keyboard technology with traditional classic organ design. Mrs. Marjorie Kogan and her sons, Dr. Michael Kogan and Mr. Barton Kogan, have made this gift in memory of their husband and father. It is a most fitting tribute to "Nat," as Judge Kogan was affectionately known, for he was very proud of the beautiful music in our synagogue. He was a tireless devotee of our congregation, who served on its Board of Trustees and was also a treasurer, and was a firm believer in high standards of excellence.

From the Rabbi's Desk

We tend to think of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur as our annual opportunity to cleanse our souls. At that time of year we engage in a serious introspective search. We scrutinize our faults and begin to take responsibility for all the wrongs we have committed against ourselves and others. We even have a special custom on Rosh Hashanah-called Tashlich-when we symbolically cast away our own individual sins by tossing breadcrumbs into a body of water and watching as our sins drift away.

Contrary to popular belief, it is not only on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur that we engage in this cleansing process, but on Pesah as well. In general, we tend to think of Pesah as a physical cleaning of the leaven (hametz) from our homes. But, this cleansing process is more than just physical. It is also spiritual. In Talmud Brachot 17a, the rabbis believe that leaven symbolizes the evil impulse (yetzer-hara) in human beings. They, therefore, maintain that when we physically remove the leaven from our homes, we are symbolically removing the evil impulse from our hearts and souls.

On the 13th of Nisan, the night prior to Pesah, we engage in yet another custom involving breadcrumbs. This time, instead of tossing the breadcrumbs into a body of water, we neatly place 10 breadcrumbs around our home (symbolic of all the hametz in our possession) for the sole purpose of removing it from our midst.

In the Haggadah, On Wings of Freedom, edited by Rabbi Richard Levy, the following suggestion is made: "We might even try to identify each of the ten pieces with one of the abuses of our yetzer-hara (evil impulse) of which we have been guilty since Yom Kippur, and reflect on them during the night. It is Spring, after all, time for a new start, time for a new flowering of the selves God created us to be."

On the following morning we burn our hametz.

If you wish to do so, please send your contribution to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund and designate it for the Passover Fund.

Project Dorot

We are invited to assist Project Dorot reach out to elderly poor living on the Upper West Side by delivering Passover packages to them.

Passover Dietary Laws Prohibited Foods

Prohibited Foods include: leavened bread. cakes, biscuits, crackers. cereal, coffee with cereal derivatives in them, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol. In addition, most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans. peas, peanuts; but string beans are permitted). Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid the use of legumes in a form other than its natural state, for example, corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil, peanut oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult Rabbi Lincoln for guidance in the use of these products.

Permitted Foods

- A. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee (without cereal additives), sugar, pure tea, salt. pepper, natural spices. fruit juices with no additives (frozen, canned, or bottled), frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes. see above), milk, butter, cottage cheese, cream cheese, tuna in water (no oil added), frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives), baking soda.
- B. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (except for legumes above), eggs, fresh fish and fresh meat.
- C. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: All baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal, and any products containing matzah), wine, vinegar, liquor, oils, dried fruits, candy, chocolate flavored milk, ice cream, yogurt, and soda.
- D. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased during Pesah: Processed foods (canned, frozen, or bottled): milk, butter, juices, vegetables, fruit, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in category C.

Detergents: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher lePesah label.

Medicine: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guides should be followed: If the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used during Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult Rabbi Lincoln. In all cases, capsules are preferable,

Kashering of Utensils

The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashering by fire and heat and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

- A. Earthenware (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. But fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.
- B. Metal (wholly made of metal) used in fire (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking and eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots have water boiled in them which will overflow the rim. The utensils should not be used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in

New Instrument

The instrument, built by Yamaha, is especially wonderful because of its versatility, its compact console, and its portability. At our Friday Eve Kabbalat Shabbat Services, at which our choir is now down in the congregation, it functions as a beautiful organ played from the main level, where it has already brought many new possibilities to that joyous, intimate service. At the gala 50th Anniversary Concert last November, it functioned to wondrous effect as an orchestral complement to the soloists, chorus, and instrumental musicians. And at our religious school's recent Zimriah on Hanukkah, the children sang with wonderful popular music accompaniment by our school's music teacher—all on this new instrument. We now have the possibility to bring fine music to numerous types of occasions in all parts of our large building.

Cantor Lefkowitz, organist Neil Robinson, and the entire congregation are, indeed, grateful to the Kogan family for this fitting memorial to Nathan Kogan, and we all anticipate the joy and blessing that it may provide to all generations of our membership for years to come.

which we use in Jewish education to help build Jewish identity and stated that we must exercise care in terms of the stereotypes we employ.

In addition to the program and speaker, four teacher-artists in the religious school exhibited their artistic works and poetry. They were artists: Ziporah Rubin; Ohad Shaaltiel; and Zev Shanken; and poet, Uzi Silver.

The details of this special annual event were again beautifully coordinated by Willa Rosenberg. We thank her for a lovely evening.

Pack To School A New Committee Initiative

The Park Avenue Synagogue Committee for the Homeless and Community Outreach is undertaking a project to provide school supplies to needy Jewish children whose families cannot afford to provide them with these basics for successful learning. For these children school supplies are tools in their road out of poverty.

The committee plans to provide school packs that will include 3-ring binders, notebooks, assignment pads, pens and pencils, rulers, and erasers. Students in our religious school will assemble the supplies in backpacks and will include handwritten, personal notes to the recipients.

The committee hopes to be able to deliver these packages in person to the children selected by the Metropolitan New York Coordinating Council on Jewish Poverty.

If you can help the committee in this effort with donations of school supplies or funds, please contact Joann Rosoff at 348-4531.

Happenings in the Religious Schools

These two events will take place in the elementary school during the month of March:

- On Friday evening, March 4th at 6:15 P.M., the Hay grade will conduct the Friday Night Kabbalat Shabbat Service in the Main Sanctuary, which will be followed by a Shabbat dinner for the students and their families.
- On Tuesday, March 15th through Thursday, March 17th, the students will conduct a seder in their classrooms.

And in the high school:

• On Sunday, March 20th, the students will help Project Ezra distribute Pesah packages to the elderly Jewish people on the Lower East Side. This mitzvah is one of the many mitzvot of "Gimilut Hasadim" that our students are involved in during the year.

Park Avenue Synagogue Support Group For Widows and Widowers

The Park Avenue Synagogue Support Group is a group of sensitive and caring individuals who comfort and help each other during their time of grief. It has been functioning for a year now, providing help to both men and women going through very difficult mourning periods and grieving after the loss of those close to them.

The group meets on the second Tuesday of each month at the synagogue. For more information, please call Mimi Sunkin at 988-3684.

Model Seder For New Americans

Park Avenue Synagogue volunteers in the Telephone Language Companion Program (TLC) and their families are being invited to join their telephone partners in a model seder on Sunday, March 13th from 2:30 to 4:30 P.M. at the synagogue. TLC volunteers, who function under the auspices of the Women's Evening Group, converse weekly by telephone with recently arrived Americans, mostly from former Eastern Block countries, to help them improve their English skills. The event will be an occasion for the new Americans and their families, some of whom consist of three generations who have never had the opportunity to attend a seder, to meet the volunteers and each other and to participate in a traditional Passover Seder.

Rabbi Lincoln will conduct the service and will be assisted by Cantor Lefkowitz and a pianist.

The seder is being sponsored by the Committee for the Homeless and Community Outreach. Approximately 100 people are expected to attend. Therefore, the committee would appreciate the congregation's help in defraying the costs of welcoming these newcomers to one of the most significant and meaningful events in Jewish life. Please send donations to the Committee for the Homeless and Community Outreach.

If you would like more information about helping new Americans improve their conversational English, please call Arline Lane at 794-0385.

WEG Theater Parties

The Women's Evening Group will be holding two theater parties, one in April and the other in June.

On Wednesday evening, April 13th, the group will be going to see "Passion," the new Stephen Sondheim-James Lapine musical (writers of the music and lyrics for "Sunday in the Park with George" and "Into the Woods"). Based on a 19th century novel set in Italy, it is the story of a woman's unrequited love for a young army captain. $75 per ticket.

Then, on Thursday, June 9th, the group is planning to see "Carousel," the widely anticipated revival of the 1945 Rodgers and Hammerstein hit musical which is finally arriving on Broadway after a sold-out run in London. Nicholas Hytner who directed "Miss Saigon" is at his best in this production. Reminisce with songs like: "If I Loved You" and "June is Busting Out All Over." $75 per ticket.

Look for WEG's theater flyer in the mail or call or write WEG at Park Avenue Synagogue and leave a message.

boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

C. Oven and Ranges: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be scrubbed and cleaned and then put through the self-cleaning cycle. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens. Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned and then a cup of water should he placed in it. Then the oven should be turned on until the water disappears. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered.

D. Glassware: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours, while the other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah or putting it through a dishwasher.

E. Dishwasher: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. Electrical Appliances: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. Tables, closets. and counters: If used with hametz, they should he thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. Kitchen sink: A metal sink can be kashered by a thorough cleaning, and by pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be clean and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

L. Hametz and non-Passover utensils: Non-Passover dishes, pots and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should he separated, locked up or covered, and marked so as to prevent accidental use.

Passover at Judaica Classics

Let Judaica Classics at Park Avenue Synagogue help you with your observance of Pesah. The Judaica shop has a large selection of seder plates, matzoh plates and covers, kiddush cups, and afikomen bags. In addition to individual items, it also features several groups of coordinated sets to help enhance the beauty of your seder table.

The seder plates, the majority of which are china or glass, come in a variety of colorful motifs. One outstanding example has a design patterned after an old Portuguese Haggadah and was commissioned in commemoration of the 500th anniversary of the expulsion of the Jews from Spain.

There also will be a large selection of Haggadot for adults and children, cook books, and many other items for your personal use or gift giving needs.

Please come in to see its selection of merchandise especially for Passover.
